

DISCOVERY SEMINAR

Are you a "Planner"?

Find out how one couple's move to a Continuing Care Retirement Community enabled them to plan ahead for their children, themselves and ...each other

If you don't plan ahead, you will get nowhere! Planning seems quite natural for Van and Betty Boughton who have moved quite a bit. Living in Massachusetts, Basking Ridge and Warren may have helped them with yet another move. Van was a chemical engineer with W. R. Grace & Co. and Betty was a busy homemaker and volunteer. In their retirement, they wanted to be free to pursue their interests. As a result of experiences with caring for family members and care in nursing homes, Van and Betty began researching their options in planning for their own future. Learn why this forward thinking couple chose to plan ahead and make one last move together to a CCRC.

Resident Ambassadors will provide tours of the Independent Community
